Say Hello is a two-level course for four to five year olds from experienced author Judy West. The course is based around two engaging young characters, Tom and Polly, plus their friend, Ben the Bear. At the heart of the course is an emphasis on child-centred activities, and the Ben the Bear puppet plays a key part in these.

- Songs, chants and games provide opportunities for repetition, enabling children to try out language in a fun and secure way and encourage interaction and movement.
- Basic phonic awareness is presented by Professor Bunny right from the start.
- In Level 2 the alphabet A-Z and the numbers 1-20 are introduced.
- Colouring, tracing and craft activities encourage participation and manual dexterity.
- Ben the Bear provides a perfect tool to encourage interaction and bring the characters of the book to life and bring fun into the classroom.
For Pupils:

Pupil’s Book
- Child-centred activities include listening, speaking and pointing activities and provide a context for the language that is being delivered
- Songs, chants and games make the learning fun and interactive
- Opportunities for making, colouring and tracing allow students to play whilst learning

Playbook
- This is exactly what the name suggests – a book for playing and exploring the language in a fun and relaxed way
- Fun games, puzzles, drawing and colouring activities
- Craft objects to cut out and make

For Teachers:

Teacher’s Book with Multi-ROM, incorporating Interactive Whiteboard software and Audio tracks
- Excellent support for teachers of all levels of experience and gives guided lesson plans with warm ups, games, extension ideas, home activity suggestions and teaching tips
- Tips on how to use Ben the Bear puppet in class
- Interactive Whiteboard materials include animated versions of the songs and a variety of interactive exercises to reinforce and extend heads-up learning in a fun way

Flashcards and Ben the Bear Puppet
(Puppet only available with Level 1 Flashcards)
- Ben the Bear Puppet brings alive the character from the book and encourages interaction and participation in class
- Full colour Flashcards cover the key vocabulary of the course

Delta Young Learners English 2nd edition
Super Starters, Mighty Movers and Fantastic Flyers

BEGINNER – ELEMENTARY  CEFR Pre-A1 – A2  |  3 levels

Viv Lambert, Cheryl Pelteret, Wendy Superfine, Judy West

A three-level series for young learners of English which is based on the syllabus of the Cambridge Young Learners English tests. The 2nd edition has been extensively revised and updated for the 2018 syllabus with sparkling new artwork and additional teacher resources, including material for the Interactive Whiteboard.

Delta Young Learners English offers an activity-based approach through active engagement in everyday classroom tasks.

Super Starters is the first level suitable for 7 to 9 year olds. It encourages pupils to “learn-by-doing”.

Mighty Movers is an activity-based course suitable for 9 to 11 year olds.

Fantastic Flyers is also an activity-based course and is suitable for 11 to 13 year olds.

All books make ideal preparation for the Cambridge YLE Tests as well as being an excellent course for any young learner.

Delta Young Learners English 2nd edition NEW edition for the revised 2018 exam!
Practise and Pass – Starters, Movers, Flyers

BEGINNER – ELEMENTARY | CEFR Pre-A1 – A2 | 3 levels

Cheryl Pelteret and Viv Lambert

Practise and Pass is especially useful for pupils who need to prepare and practise for the Cambridge YLE tests over a relatively short period of time or alongside another coursebook. Each level provides 20 – 30 hours of material.

Practise and Pass is much more than a collection of practice tests. The activities are lively and communicative and follow a clear progression, so the pupils prepare, practise and pass. In the “prepare” section the language is introduced, in the “practise” section the language is practised in a meaningful and fun way and finally in the “pass” section the language is tested in a way that will make the eventual test familiar to the pupils.

IELTS Intensive

Louis Rogers, Nick Thorner

IELTS Intensive is a short course offering 40 hours of classroom study, with an optional 20 hours of additional practice material for extended classroom use or homework. It is designed to strike a balance between test training and practice in all four skills areas. IELTS Intensive is aimed at students who require an IELTS band score of 5.5 – 6.5, who are close to achieving this level of academic language proficiency, but who need to improve their IELTS performance.

Key features:
- It is a genuinely short course which means teachers do not have to use content selectively.
- The focus on evaluating models and analysing test prompts helps students engage confidently with test tasks.
- Additional test practice material after every two units reviews task types presented in the preceding units in a format that closely reflects the test.
- Two audio CDs, full audio transcripts and an answer key with full sample answers are included in the back of the book.

Trinity CertTESOL Companion

Jason Anderson

Trinity CertTESOL Companion is the ideal companion for any trainee English language teacher preparing for the Trinity CertTESOL course.

Trinity CertTESOL Companion can be used both as pre-course preparation and as a supplement to the training on the course. It sets trainee teachers firmly on the path to becoming capable and independent English language teachers.

Contents: The book consists of five core units which mirror the five units of the CertTESOL syllabus together with three supplementary units to assist trainees before, during and after the course.

Each unit includes a number of key features to model and support best practice in teacher education:

- Learning opportunities provided at the beginning of the unit;
- A review activity at the end of the unit to enable self-evaluation of the learning opportunities;
- ‘Pause for Thought’ activities at several stages within each unit to help trainees reflect on what they are reading in order to consolidate learning;
- Real quotes from CertTESOL trainers and former trainees to provide advice and build confidence.

Other features include:

- An extensive reference unit entitled ‘The Knowledge’ including information on CertTESOL pass criteria, English language exams and key aspects of grammar that trainee teachers need to know;
- A recommended reading list and a selection of pre-course preparation tasks;
- An overview of EFL methodologies and theory which links to the different units/requirements of the CertTESOL;
- Help with lesson planning (including model plan) and structuring assignments;
- A full glossary of educational/ELT terminology and an index.
Delta Academic Objectives

Delta Academic Objectives is a series of course books designed to help students adapt to the challenge of academic study in English.

Delta Academic Objectives: Reading Skills has been written to prepare students for academic reading, placing emphasis not only on extensive reading skills development, but also on continued language development through four main areas: Understanding the text, Critical thinking, Using the text and Language Focus.

Delta Academic Objectives: Writing Skills has been written to prepare students for academic writing, placing emphasis not only on developing strong academic writing skills but also on continued language development through five main areas: Structure and organisation, Critical thinking, Using the text, Language Focus and Evaluating writing.

Delta Academic Objectives: Listening and note-taking skills has been written to prepare students for academic listening, placing emphasis not only on practice with extended listening passages but also on continued language development through three main areas: Language Focus, Extension Activities, and Vocabulary Activities.

Delta Academic Objectives: Listening and note-taking skills develops essential comprehension skills in the context of real-life talks, presentations, and conversations. Longer listening passages help students’ ability to follow such talks, presentations, and conversations for the longer periods of time common in academic and work environments.

Series key features:
- written for students at both undergraduate and postgraduate level
- themes relate to a wide range of common academic subject fields
- topics are both academic and common to everyday life, thus accessible to all students
- contains exercises to practice vocabulary in the Academic Word List
- is supported by online resources consisting of a bank of longer texts and accompanying activities to help develop students’ reading and writing skills

Heads Up
Spoken English for business
Mark Tulip with Louise Green and Richard Nicholas

LEVEL 1: ELEMENTARY – PRE-INTERMEDIATE
CEFR Level 1: A2 – B1

LEVEL 2: INTERMEDIATE – UPPER INTERMEDIATE
CEFR Level 2: B1 – B2

Heads Up is a practical student-based speaking course, devised to meet the overriding need in-work students have to become operational in spoken English as quickly and efficiently as possible. Heads Up addresses the lack of time these one-to-one or group learners often have and the need for streamlined materials targeting their own needs in their own world of work. The materials in Heads Up help students to successfully achieve speaking skills development by providing careful preparation leading up to personalised tasks, supported by consistent pronunciation practice and teacher feedback.

The forty short units per level of Heads Up get right to the heart of the students’ needs and wishes, and are divided into three sections: ‘My Job’, ‘My Business’ and ‘The Bigger Picture’ with considerable input invited from students. The topics encourage students to talk about their own work contexts, while the activities naturally stimulate and motivate learners with personalised tasks.

Key features:
- Offers extensive listening and speaking practice with personalised tasks
- Provides regular pronunciation work, with attention to elision, stress and intonation
- Suitable for normal class use and some guided self-study
- Student’s Book accompanied by audio CD and Delta Augmented

DELTA AUGMENTED
A ground-breaking series developed by York Associates, who have been preparing professionals for international work for over 30 years.

Research shows that, in order to operate and communicate successfully in the ever-more-connected world of international business, managers need a blend of the following skills to be effective communicators:

- Relevant language skills
- People management skills
- Communicative ability
- Intercultural competence

International Management English provides comprehensive training in all of the above areas alongside the language needed to carry them out successfully.

International Management English consists of four titles covering key aspects of international business operations. Each book in the series consists of eight units, with every unit offering four distinct sections:

- Discussion and listening: Engaging and relevant content in areas of international management and teamwork
- Communication skills: In addition to the familiar topics of meetings, presentations and negotiations, input and practice are also provided in conflict management, team building and giving and receiving feedback
- Professional skills: Authentic texts from management writers and thinkers provide the starting point for reflection and discussion among learners
- Intercultural competence: A focus on raising cultural awareness followed by an illustrative case study

Trainer’s notes to accompany each title are available to download from www.deltapublishing.co.uk/resources

In addition each title in the International Management English Series provides:

- A learning diary
- A needs analysis
- Unit-by-unit glossaries of key words and phrases
- Tips for more effective language learning and how to improve performance at work
- The opportunity to develop a personal action plan
Delta Business Communication Skills
Susan Lowe, Louise Pile, David King

The Delta Business Communication Skills series is designed to help learners at Pre-intermediate and Intermediate levels to master the key communication skills required in international business English today. Each book in the series is designed for classroom use, but is also suitable for self-study.

There are eight titles in the series: Meetings, Presenting, Negotiating, Telephoning, Emailing, Socialising, Using Social Media and Business English Language Practice.

Each book in the Delta Business Communications Skills series contains:

- A needs analysis to help learners to think about their strengths and weaknesses in English and to identify and prioritise their learning needs
- A learning journal to help students monitor their learning during the course
- A review to help consolidate the language work students have done in each unit
- A reference section listing the vocabulary and useful phrases covered in each unit
- A resources section containing a range of photocopiable material
- An answer key, including suggested answers, and transcripts

Business English Language Practice aims to help learners of business English develop the grammar and vocabulary needed to participate in business effectively. The book can be used to support the rest of the Delta Business Communication Skills series, building on topics covered there, or can be used independently for grammar and vocabulary practice.
Natural Business English presents and practises not only essential business vocabulary and expressions, but also natural business language using idiomatic expressions and metaphorical language. This book is designed to help learners to understand this language, and to practise using it in appropriate ways to improve their fluency. It is suitable for people studying business English, doing courses with a business English component at university or equivalent level, as well as those already working who need English in their careers.
Absolute Banking English

Julie Pratten

Absolute Banking English is written for Upper Intermediate and Advanced learners of English who work in banking or the financial sector. It is designed for people who need to communicate internationally in English on a daily basis.

Features:
- Discusses topics which reflect the ever-changing language of banking English and shift in priorities of bankers in the last decade
- Aims to develop the core skills required by international bankers in their day to day working life
- Contains the specialist terminology, synonyms, abbreviations and idiomatic expressions of a particular topic area of banking in each unit
- Offers a balanced range of exercises and communication activities in each unit
- Contains 12 thematic units, each divided into four key skills sections, plus 4 review sections

Absolute Financial English

Julie Pratten

Absolute Financial English is a coursebook written for students following a course of study in financial English, written in particular for candidates preparing for ICFE. It contains 10 units which provide over 60 hours of teaching material.

Features:
- Each unit is divided into four sections with each section covering one of the four skills; closely following the organisation of Cambridge ICFE
- Introductory unit describes the ICFE exam in detail including an introduction to each paper
- Includes a Skills Focus and an Exam Focus in every section of each unit
- Provides extensive practice of the text types and tasks featured in the exam
- Offers tips and hints to assist candidates with each section of the exam
- Suitable for class or self-study

Absolute Legal English

Helen Callanan, Lynda Edwards

Absolute Legal English is a comprehensive coursebook for students of law and practising lawyers who wish to work in an international legal environment and need to extend their language skills.

It is written in an accessible style by authors who combine experience in language teaching and legal authority. Absolute Legal English is informative and engaging and uses a variety of proven techniques from the field of language teaching combined with an authoritative knowledge of appropriate legal matters.

Features:
- Consists of nine units which cover the main areas of international law
- Covers Intellectual property, Competition law, Employment law, Contract law, Real property law, Company law and Environmental law
- Each of the nine units gives practice in all four key language skills and all skills work is closely related to real working practice
- Suitable for students preparing for the ILEC exam
- Contains additional exam-type tasks for each ILEC paper plus specific exam advice
- Suitable for both class and self-study
- Contains a glossary of additional useful terms
- Contains audio transcripts, answer key and Audio CD
SkillsWork is an exciting book for teachers and students who want to focus on skills development at intermediate level and beyond. SkillsWork is lively and motivating with a range of engaging and relevant topics.

SkillsWork can be used alongside a standard coursebook or on its own, ideal if you want to teach away from the coursebook for part of the day or week. It provides 40 interesting lessons of integrated skills work with each unit having a focus skill while also linking in to practice all four skills in each and every lesson.

Additional features:
- provides endless opportunities to extend and practice the students’ lexical range, using both active and passive vocabulary. It provides work on collocations, phrasal verbs, word building, idioms and register.
- is made up of a variety of task types, from full class discussion to individual homework, giving students the opportunity to learn and use new language in a variety of ways.
- provides practice in writing and speaking tasks required of students in life, work and exams; letter writing, reviews, emails, reports, complaints, planning, comparing, discussing, objecting etc.
A Handbook of Spoken Grammar

Ken Paterson, Caroline Caygill, Rebecca Sewell

Spoken English is now recognised as having its own ‘grammar’ that is not covered in traditional language practice material. A Handbook of Spoken Grammar teaches learners to speak more naturally, using the patterns that native speakers use when speaking English.

Using Collocations for Natural English

Elizabeth Walter, Kate Woodford

Using Collocations for Natural English helps students improve the way they use the words they already know. Comprising 24 units and 6 review sections, collocations are first presented in simple exercises. Students go on to understand and use the collocations with confidence in a variety of contexts.

Using Phrasal Verbs for Natural English

Elizabeth Walter, Kate Woodford

Every learner of English wants to develop fluent, natural English – understanding and using phrasal verbs is an essential part of this development. This book not only helps learners to understand phrasal verbs, but also helps them learn when and how to use them successfully, to produce more natural-sounding English.
Authentic Listening Resource Pack
Bridging the gap to real-world listening

Mark Hancock and Annie McDonald

Authentic Listening Resource Pack provides an invaluable bank of selected audio and video material offering authentic listening practice, essential in developing students’ listening skills in preparation for being exposed to “real” English.

Authentic Listening Resource Pack consists of over 4 hours of authentic audio and video materials supported by photocopiable worksheets. The recordings are broken down into segments, including micro-listenings, so that students can develop a range of listening competences, and comprehensively practise listening techniques that develop the skills they need to cope with real spoken language in the outside world.

Speaking Games
Photocopiable activities to make language learning fun

Jason Anderson

Speaking Games is a photocopiable resource book of 50 speaking games for teachers of English to use in class with both adult and teenage learners. It provides teachers with original, effective and enjoyable activities that focus on developing the learners’ ability to use language confidently in real-world situations. It includes a wide variety of activities which get learners speaking on topics of interest while injecting energy, fun and motivation into a class.

Pre-Intermediate – Advanced CEFR B1 – C1 1 level

Key features:
- Authentic texts use unscripted video and radio materials
- Listening materials include an international range of accents
- ‘Micro-edits’ highlight features of spoken English and pronunciation in context
- Original tasks teach listening, not just test it
- Materials are scaffolded to take learners from coursebook English to authentic speech
- Provides strategies for dealing with features of fast spontaneous speech
- Listening materials available online, providing extra listening opportunities for students

Each game:
- Is easy to print, use and recycle
- Is presented in a double-page spread of instructions and resources
- Includes a ‘Rules of the Game’ handout, to be used as an authentic reading opportunity

Speaking Games is divided into four sections:
- Board Games – photocopiable boards for games such as Snakes and Ladders or Scrabble
- Card Games – photocopiable cards that are cut up and used either as questions or prompts
- Secrets and Lies – activities that involve either guessing secret information or guessing whether a speaker is being honest or not
- Quizzes, Puzzles and Challenges – including well-known quiz show formats, such as Who Wants to Be a Millionaire, problem solving puzzles, brain teasers and activities that challenge learners to use language accurately while speaking fluently

Delta Teacher Development Series

A pioneering, multi-award-winning series of books for English Language Teachers with professional development in mind, blending theory, practice and development.

The Delta Teacher Development Series features some of the best and most expert authors in ELT, writing about fundamental areas of professional interest to teachers today. Each title in the series has three distinctive parts – A, B and C, which focus in turn on theory, practice and development:

- A: What do you need to know? What have others in the profession said or written? What is the latest information? How are things changing?
- B: What can you do? What practical activities can you carry out? How can you and your students get the most out of your teaching? How can you help yourself to help them better?
- C: How can you develop from here? What is the next step? How can you go further as a teacher in your own professional development?
